Wrapping Up.....the ACAC Year

Herewith, a semi-summary of the past twelve months in Old Car Land. The Ancient City Auto Club enjoyed lots of highs, and one major low. Let's all take time to be thankful for all the years of effort and caring that JOHN GUARNIERI gave to this club. Likewise, be grateful that LINDA GUARNIERI has recovered so incredibly well from her near-fatal accident.

2012 Olde News stories highlighted new members, many events involving FOOD, and travels and competitions that club members shared. Outstanding moments include the spring Rodeo and the two scholarships awarded to Tech students. Especially memorable: the club's 28th annual Show, which hosted over 200 entrant cars in November.

As the nearly retired newsletter editor, K8 would like to thank in print club members who gave assistance to the production of the Olde News. First, a Laurel Wreath to CARLEY KING, who contributed many pages of her own adventures in Auto Land, as well as cheerful aid and comfort to a nervous new editor.

Next, JOE GREEVES, whose professional grade photos graced nearly every issue. Then, DICK SHERROD, whose devotion to the club and to all things with Wheels has added tremendous interest to the newsletter.

OUTGOING Show Chairman and Olde News Editor, Mark and Kathy Young

Fourth, TUNI WEISS, who knows how to convey the joys of the Weiss travels and garage inhabitants. Fifth, GLADYS WILLIAMS, whose up close and personal photos gave so much personality to the Olde News.

Sixth, GLENN KLEIN, who sponsored two months of fun with old car photo contests with Breakfast rewards!

Seventh, RON LEONE, whose untiring efforts to find delightful new venues for Eating-Out keep us somewhat chubby, but Very Happy!

Eighth, posthumously, JOHN GUARNIERI, who never failed to send the Olde News Editor words of support every month. K8 will never forget his kindness.

Finally, but far from least, K8 thanks her spouse, who footed the bill for the Professor who taught her how to put this 'thang' together on a machine.

ACAC Board Meeting: 11-15-12

Vice President Cliff Williams called the meeting to order at 7:33 p.m., with Dewey Porter and Mark Young in attendance. Other board members had other commitments.

Mark Young reported on the highlights of the recent Car Show. A full report will be given at the January meeting. Mark stated that he will maintain the database for next year's show, but after three years of show chair service, he will not chair the next show.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:15 p.m. and Annette's chocolate cake was enjoyed by all.

Acting Secretary: Dewey Porter
