Karen Erwin, Car Show Chairperson, staugwed@aug.com

We all awoke early on Saturday, November 2nd hoping that that sound we were hearing would not be rain, but it was. Not to worry, our Fearless Leader, Karen Erwin, took it all in stride and the show was a wonderful success, notwithstanding the wet and the (first of the season) cold.

Preparations on Friday were done in sunny hotness, so we had hoped that the rain would pass us by. Bob Q. is all ready.

As usual, when we (Bill and Jim) plugged it in, nothing happened. (It had to be turned on.) The men of the club labored efficiently and cheerfully to install the PA equipment. Ron Leone was climbing up ladders; Joe Greeves was carrying speakers; Cliff Williams was stringing wires; Mark Young was holding things together. Jim Weiss and Bob Barton, Fred Bauer, Ray Cornett, Bill Soman—all shouldered the responsibility for getting music and announcements for the show. Karen supplied the last-minute instructions to Quackenbushes.

And this is what it looked like on Saturday morning. Lots of green though as Karen had supplied us with lovely green shirts to make the members visible to our guests.

This car used to be owned by John and Rose Ponder (former president of ACAC) and looks rather lonely on the field, but I think it won a prize.

This Nash Metropolitan was also a prize winner.

And you can see that the PT Cruisers were undaunted by the precipitation—they had a whole lineup of participants. We had a chance to step back and enjoy each car as it arrived. The black beautiful Ford on the left was a great car to see.

1970 Ford, Mach 1, Kenny Johns, Waycross, GA

The barbeque was wonderful --pretty fire truck! – hot dogs superb, even the ice cream was so wonderful that we ate it even shivering.

So many beautiful Corvettes!

The highlight and centerpiece of this show was Peter Starr’s exhibition of this 1955 300SL Mercedes Gullwing. He defied the rain and patiently expounded on the features and beauty of this rare automobile. The participants were given a spectacular presentation, worth by itself the trip, the rain, the cold.

A pretty collection of special trucks gathered.

1958 Chevy Pickup owned by Gary Barrett of JAX.

1946 Chevy Pickup owned by Dan Briagle, JAX.

1973 Saab Coupe - Jacksonville

1990 Cadillac Allante—Owned by a veteran, it was a prize winner, I believe.

2009 Dodge Caliber owned by Bill Simson of Palm Coast.

Other Plymouths joined the first.

Here's the Gullwing again, all by itself.

And this is the view from inside the announcer's "lean-to" with club members vying for prizes at the 'trivia' game. -As people were leaving, I got to take a few more photos here—

So, now, if you did not brave the elements last Saturday, you can still see what we all saw—a great show despite the rain. There were about 70 cars on the field and we had a good time—it was all wrapped up by 2 p.m. The judges and the registration table were very efficient. Carley King ran the information booth and obtained current email addresses for next year’s show. It was good to see Judy Alden there doing the judging. Dewey Porter’s gang of judges had the job done in record time. Tuni Weiss handled the registration with Pat and Bill Meyer. Judy Cornett managed to sell $300 worth of 50/50 tickets. Joe Greeves has 100 more photos for next month.

ACAC EATS AGAIN!

Ron picked a good place for the club to dine last month. Bob and Jinny were on their way home from Montana where they had visited Glacier National Park and “borrowed” a canoe that happened to be at the water’s edge. Luckily, although the park was just opened that day from the recent government shutdown, no one seemed to mind that we had availed ourselves of the boat and paddled around in the mirrored water.

We also saw cars.
